

Critical Thinking Masterclass

Why this course?

Critical thinkers have better problem-solving skills. They are more resistant to poorly reasoned arguments, have mental resilience and present their ideas persuasively, with impact.

What's the outcome?

By the end of this workshop you'll have ways of spotting the weakness in an argument and putting it right. You'll be able to spot and solve problems more effectively, particularly in groups, and have more confidence in your own decision-making process.

What's in the course?

On the course you will learn about the biases that we all carry within us, the rules of logic and fallacy, and guidelines for conducting effective discussions.

- Listen to arguments and analyse them.
- Practise scientific thinking.
- Test yourself for bias when examining stories, pictures and real-life scenarios.
